

March 24, 2020

RE: Executive Order 2020-21 (COVID-19)

To Whom It May Concern,

Evans Distribution Systems is a third-party logistics provider based in Melvindale, Mich. Evans services customers across many industries including consumer products, food, beverage, medical supplies and more.

As mandated by Executive Order 2020-21, also known as the “Stay at Home, Stay Safe” order, Evans Distribution Systems and affiliated companies, will continue operations under the “essential business” exemption as a transportation and logistics service provider to our customers.

In compliance with the order, Evans’ vendor partners must also be deemed “essential businesses” to ensure our services continue without disruption.

Evans Distribution Systems appreciates the support of these critical partners in order to maintain the production and distribution of goods and materials needed by the general public during the COVID-19 health crisis.

Sincerely,

John A. Evans

President & CEO

(313) 388-3200

jaevans@evansdist.com